

Middle School Physical Education Teacher 2017-2018

Creative Minds is seeking a Middle School Physical Education Teacher for the 2017-2018 School Year. Creative Minds International PCS is currently seeking a Middle School Physical Education Teacher who has 1+ years relevant experience to lead engaging and creative physical education lessons for students with a diversity of abilities and needs.

About CMIPCS

CMIPCS is a tuition-free school located in NW Washington, DC, authorized to serve students from preschool through 8th grade. Now in its fifth year of operation, CMI serves 341 students in Preschool (3 year olds) through 6th grade. Beginning this school year, CMI expanded to include two 6th-grade classes, marking the opening of its new Middle School. Two sections of 7th grade will be added in 2017-2018 with 2 classes of 8th being offered in the subsequent year.

Our mission is to provide students with the foundational skills required for successful participation in a global society. CMI is a unique and dynamic working environment with a respectful and positive school culture. We offer a highly-engaging, international curriculum with project- and arts-based activities with an emphasis in STEAM that foster creativity, self-motivation, social and emotional development, and academic excellence.

Responsibilities

The teacher plans and provides rich, age-appropriate learning experiences for students.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Implementation of the International Middle Years Physical Education curriculum;
- Analysis and demonstration of basic skills and knowledge of formal sports, games, rhythms, and fundamentals of movement;
- Providing appropriate safety instruction and conducting safety checks on all equipment to ensure the overall safety of students;
- Maintaining control of storage and inventory of all physical education materials and instructional aids;
- Establishing and upholding clear standards of student behavior necessary to provide an orderly, productive environment;
- Establishing clear objectives for all lessons, units, projects, and assessments;
- Providing an inviting, exciting, innovative, learning environment;

- Meeting the needs, interests and abilities for all students, including students with disabilities, ELL students, and those who are gifted and talented;
- Developing lesson plans that draw content from CMIPCS professional development in the areas of arts integration and child development to reinforce student learning;
- Regularly observing students and taking anecdotal notes to inform planning in the arrangement of small groups, classroom set up, integrations of students' interests in learning activities, and subsequent assessments;
- Monitoring student progress through frequent formal and informal student evaluations recorded in portfolio assessments;
- Providing educational opportunities that reflects an understanding of students' unique sensory and information processing profiles;
- Using appropriate techniques and strategies that promote and enhance creative problem-solving, and evaluative thinking of students;
- Working with families to support the progress of individual students;
- Using effective, positive, respectful interpersonal communication skills;
- Establishing positive relationships with colleagues, students, families and the community which reflect recognition of and respect for every individual;
- Incorporating technology into curriculum as appropriate;
- Attending a two-week summer institute and other required professional development sessions.

Desired Qualities

- Extensive knowledge of physical fitness, sports, and wellness for school-age children;
- Physical ability to demonstrate athletic activities;
- Extensive knowledge of the DC Physical Education standards;
- Excellent communication skills;
- Demonstrated ability and experience to engage the interest of school-age children;
- Prior teaching experience in a public or private school, preferably in an urban setting;
- Demonstrated ability to work well with parents;
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively as a team member;
- Patience, flexibility, and a willingness to take risks;
- Consistently reflects on her/his own teaching practices;
- Experience working with linguistically and ethnically diverse student populations and children with developmental differences;
- Demonstrated commitment to professional growth and eagerness to learn;
- Demonstrated commitment to the well-being and success of all students.

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in health or science is required
- Possesses or is eligible for a valid District of Columbia Teaching Certificate or License (standard or provisional)/ Passed the Health or Physical Education Praxis (00856/5856) and Principles of Learning & Teaching: Grades 5-9 (0623/5623).

Why join CMIPCS?

Our mission is to provide students with the foundational skills required for successful participation in a global society by offering a highly engaging, international curriculum with project- and arts-based activities that foster creativity, self-motivation, social and emotional development, and academic excellence.

At CMIPCS you will join a staff uniquely committed to a vision of inclusion and equity for all types of learners. At CMIPCS you will find a team of educators who deeply believe that all students can learn and will make a contribution to their community. Our dedication to Arts-Integration allows for a creative and collaborative atmosphere, as classroom lead teachers, support staff, and enlightenment teachers all work together to plan engaging and enriching content that weaves the Arts into all subjects. At CMIPCS, we take seriously the idea that “no significant learning occurs without a significant relationship.” Each of our educators, regardless of role or responsibility, is committed to seeking out best practices for delivering instruction and responding to the academic and social-emotional needs of all children. The CMIPCS teacher is empathetic and welcoming of mistakes (both academic and behavioral) because CMIPCS educators know that mistakes lead to learning opportunities if children are held to high standards.

CMIPCS offers an exceptional and dynamic working environment with a positive and supportive culture including small class sizes (approximately 20), higher than average adult to student ratios, weekly and monthly professional development, comprehensive and generous benefits including medical, dental, 401K (with employer contributions), short and long term disability, life insurance, paid school holidays, personal and sick days, and parental and family leave, among others.

For more information about CMI, visit our website <http://www.creativemindspcs.org/> and follow us on Twitter @cmipcs.

To Apply

A successful application will include a resume and a cover letter detailing relevant experience and qualifications for this position. Please submit the requested information to cmi.middleschool@creativemindspcs.org. We will only be contacting candidates selected for interviews and will require letters of recommendation and/or references for any candidates being considered for this position.

Note: Nothing in this job description restricts management's right to assign or reassign duties and responsibilities to this job at any time.

Creative Minds International PCS is an Equal Opportunity employer. Personnel are chosen on the basis of ability without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, marital status or sexual orientation, in accordance with federal and state law.